* Based on an ideal supervisorial district population of 619,063

06/02/11 RAC Draft Plan 3-1

Committee Member Ridz Comments/Directions to Staff	Staff Action(s)
Provided a list of Census tracts to move, including a number of split Census tracts that should be unified	Included in plan as listed, to the extent possible, keeping Census tracts whole (splits the cities of Escondido, San Marcos, Oceanside and Vista between Districts 3 and 5)
Keep the community of Tierrasanta, including tracts 95.02, 95.05, 95.06, 95.07 and 95.10 in District 4, as depicted in 05/16/11 RAC Draft Plan 3.	Included in plan
The community of University City should be moved into District 3.	Included in plan as listed by Census tracts
The City of Carlsbad should remain in District 3.	Included in plan as listed by Census tracts
The City of Escondido should remain out of District 3.	Included in plan as listed by Census tracts

Committee Member Ridz Comments/Directions to Staff	Staff Action(s)
The portion of the City of San Marcos south of SR-78 should move from District 5 into District 3, including tracts 200.18, 200.19, 200.21, 200.26, 200.27, 200.29 and 203.06, to share a common border with the City of Carlsbad	Included in plan
Tracts 200.21 and 200.28 can be placed in District 3 or District 5 based on staff's analysis of the population numbers	Tracts 200.21 and 200.28 in District 5 because District 5 population is under the ideal population in this plan
Move the San Carlos area, tracts 97.04, 98.01, 98.02, 98.04, and 98.05, from District 3 to District 4.	Included in plan
In the Rancho Bernardo community area, move tracts 170.14, 170.15, 170.19, 170.31, 170.33, 170.34, 170.35, 170.51, 170.52, 170.55, 170.56 from District 3 into District 2.	Included in plan. A portion of tract 170.06 added to District 2 to avoid creating a non-contiguous island of a portion of District 3.
Keep tracts 170.30 and 170.32 in District 3.	Included in plan

06/02/11 RAC Draft Plan 5-1

Committee Member Day Comments/Directions to Staff	Staff Action(s)
Set the boundary line between District 1 and District 4 at the San Diego River, as suggested by Chairman Anderson. Include tract 75.01 and surrounding tracts in District 1. Tract 76 should be the southern boundary of District 4.	Included in plan
Replicate the boundary of District 4 in the La Jolla area as depicted in 05/16/11 RAC Draft Plan 4. Tracts 82, 83.03, 83.05 to remain in District 4.	Included in plan
Maintain the boundary of the Tierrasanta and San Carlos areas as depicted in 05/16/11 RAC Draft Plan 5.	Included in plan
May adjust the boundary line in the Tierrasanta/San Carlos area based on demographic numbers.	No adjustments made based on specific direction above
Align the boundary between District 2 and District 3 with the City of Poway boundary, not incorporating Rancho Bernardo.	Included in plan

Committee Member Day Comments/Directions to Staff	Staff Action(s)
Split tract 207.09 at the boundary of the City of San Diego to set the northern boundary of District 2 at the City of San Diego boundary	Included in plan. Tract 207.10 also split to follow City of San Diego boundary
Split tract 170.30 between Districts 3 and 5 from the northwest corner of tract 170.32 running north to Lake Hodges to keep the community of 4S Ranch in the same district as the community of Rancho Bernardo	Tract 170.30 split as directed along Census block lines
Include the southern portion of tract 170.30 that lies within the City of San Diego in District 3.	Included in plan (splits tract 170.30)
Replicate the boundary between District 1 and District 4 in the San Diego Downtown area as depicted in 05/16/11 RAC Draft Plan 4, as related to San Diego City Hall.	Included in plan (splits tract 53)

Committee Member Day Comments/Directions to Staff	Staff Action(s)
Rincon Del Diablo area, the unincorporated area southeast of the City of Escondido in tract 207.05, can move into District 2 or District 3 based on staff's analysis of the demographic data.	Included in District 3 because District 3 population is under the ideal population in this plan. Unincorporated area of tract 206.02 added to D3 to avoid creating a non-contiguous island of a portion of District 2
Set the boundary between District 3 and District 5 in the Jesmond Dene area to align with the City of Escondido boundary, keeping the City of Escondido in District 3. This would split tracts 203.04 and 201.03 along the City of Escondido boundary.	Included in plan. Splits the City of Escondido between District 3 and District 5. More specific direction needed at the Census block level to address this split
